DOUBLE TRAGEDY STIRS THE PEOPLE OF DAISYTOWN

MAN KILLS SELF; FIRST WOUNDS WIFE

Officers Are Investigating Tragedy At the Home of John Redidsky of Daisytown—The Woman, It Is Said, Will Likely Die

FEW FACTS ARE KNOWN

When Minions of the Law Began Their Work of Investigation the Neighborhood Was So Greatly Excited That Questioning Was Useless

The people of Daisytown were considerably exercised yesterday afternoon by a double tragedy occurring within its ordinarily peaceful domains, when John Redidsky, aged 48 years, a miner, after firing the contents of a shotgun shell into the body of his wife, Mrs. Anna Redidsky, also aged about 48, and perhaps mortally wounding her, turned the weapon upon himself and expired his time by the suicide method. Mrs. Redidsky was rushed to the Brownsville General Hospital, where it was stated last night that little hope is entertained for her recovery.

No one witnessed the tragedy, which was enacted in what is known as Avner row, the sound of the shots arousing the neighborhood. Residents rushed into the dwelling occupied by the Redidsky family and discovered the crime.

Minions of the law were summoned, but owing to the fact that the people of the neighborhood were greatly exercised and excited over the tragedy, questioning in the matter availed little information.

Unconscious as a result of her terrible wounds, Mrs. Redidsky never rallied, and unless she regains consciousness sufficient to make a statement, the true facts of the case will doubtless never be known. It is said there is practically no chance for her recovery.

Redidsky had not been employed for some time. There are several children in the family.

75 Chinese Gunmen Imported, Gun War

New York, Nov. 29—Seventy-five Chinese guns imported from the west coast today awaited orders to attack, as new murders and shootings put an end to the temporary truce in the long war which centering here has broken out in every Chinese section of the larger cities.

Gong Sing, On Leong tongman, is in the hospital with five bullets in his body and Tom Hong, member of the Hip Sings is in another with two bullets in his body. Neither is expected to live.

The shootings occurred last night and followed closely on the heels of the murders of Hok Hun and Gog Ching Foo yesterday which broke the

The gunmen were imported by the Hip Sings, according to Sing Noy, secretary of the On Leongs.

FAHY GETS 25 YEARS FOR PLOTTING ROBBERY

Chicago, Nov. 29.—William J. Fahy, "Ace of Postal Inspectors," today was sentenced to serve 25 years in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Georgia, by Judge Adams Chase in Federal court here for plotting the $2,000,000 robbery of a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad train at Roundout, Illinois, June 12.

James Murray, Chicago politician, was given a similar sentence. The pair were convicted by a jury Tuesday on testimony of the robbers and Fahy's associate inspectors. Walter McCombs, Murray's lieutenant, charged jointly with them in conspiracy, was acquitted.

Robert I. F. Levy, United States marshal, announced transfer of Fahy and Murray to their banishment will be deferred until Monday, when the confessed bandits who carried out the robbery on information supplied by Fahy, will be sentenced.

Driver of Car Killing Man Is Unknown

Coroner William Greenlee conducted an inquest at Centerville yesterday in the death of John Jeho, aged about 70 years, whose mangled body was found along the highway leading to Vestaburg on the evening of Sunday, November 9.

The jury recommended that the efforts of the officials to learn the identity of the unknown driver of the automobile which hit Mr. Jeho be continued. The body held that the man came to a death from being struck by an automobile.

A PRINCIPAL IN "MR. A" CASE IS UNDER ARREST

London, Nov. 29.—One of the principals in the "Mr. A" case was under arrest today and another was sought by Scotland Yard detectives. This was the not unexpected aftermath of the sensational trial in which a conspiracy to obtain $1,500,000 from an unnamed Indian potentate was established.

Two Colored Men Are Held For An Attempted Robbery

James Johnson, aged 30 years, and W. B. Barnum, 40 years old, colored, apparently "floaters," were arrested by Lieutenant R. W. Hughes and Patrolman Charles Young Thursday evening at a late hour and lodged in the police station at Monongahela, and Harry Smith, of Second street, Monongahela, an officer connected with the McKeesport police department, will probably prefer charges of assault and battery and attempted robbery against them.

Officer Smith, after spending the holiday in Monongahela, was enroute across the river bridge to the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie station, intending to go to McKeesport in pursuance of his duties as a minion of the law. He was beyond the center of the structure, when three colored men stopped him. Refusing, it is said, to put up his hands when they commanded him to do so, the men attacked Mr. Smith and in the fray he put one of them hors de combat and followed the others to the Monongahela side of the river, where Monongahela minions took the two remaining men in charge.

Each of the suspects when arrested bore evidence of having been in a lively tilt. One was bleeding from a wound on his face where Smith had struck him, and the other one also suffered bruises at the hands of the officer. The prisoners, who were drunk, could not remember the occurrence when questioned yesterday morning.

FUNERAL OF AUTO VICTIM

Funeral services for Donald Coulter, aged five years, son of Mrs. Beatrice Coulter, Jones street, Monongahela, who was killed instantly on Thanksgiving day afternoon at 3 o'clock, when he was struck by an automobile driven by J. MEN FIND A LARGE FORTUNE Micky Vegso, former well-known boxer here, who is now residing in East Youngstown, and employed as a heater in No. 2 Sheet mill, Youngstown Sheet and Tube mill, was one of the three employees of the mill who discovered the automobile robe containing a hoard of $517,800 in Liberty bonds and other negotiable securities Wednesday. November 19, which was published in the Mail recently, according to E. Aubrey Daniel of Youngstown, who is visiting here this week-end.

The three men were out hunting at the time when they stumbled on the wealth. They received substantial rewards for its return to the authorities, who in turn put it in the hands of the bank from which it was stolen by auto bandits early in November.

A DARKEY ATTACKS WOMAN

Mrs. Katherine Houston, of 910 Lawrence street, Monongahela, is in a highly nervous state, suffering from the shock as the result of having been attacked by a negro while walking home Wednesday evening about 10 o'clock.

The woman was attacked only a few feet from her door. Mrs. Houston, who is employed at the Glasser restaurant, had completed her day's work and was enroute to her home. She stated to the police that she did not notice anyone following her until near home. She started through Parallel Way when the man, a short negro of stocky build, approached and attacked her. Mrs. Houston's screams attracted the attention of neighbors, who ran to her aid and saw the assailant running down the street. He made a successful getaway.

Sale Of Seals Is On--Time To Buy Is Now

The seventeenth annual sale of Christmas Seals, conducted by the National Tuberculosis society, begins tonight.

The sale in Charleroi has been carried on by the ladies of the Athene club, and the proceeds used for the needy tubercular patients in the community.

The sale last year amounted to $965.53. Of this amount, $100 was donated to the Baby Clinic, $250 was given to the Community nurse, car fare, spring, and the balance to the Tuberculosis patients of this district, besides furnishing the medical room in the new Junior High building.

First aid kits, blankets, and bed linen were purchased for the other school buildings, and health literature, has been distributed in the school a number of times.

The war against tuberculosis is financed by the annual sale of these Christmas Seals. Each seal brings only one cent into the fight but a billion seals brings $10,000,000; and money means so much.

They are enrolling again as members for the coming year and we invite you to join with them in our 1925 CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB which opens for membership on Monday, December 8.

Test of Law Comes Case of Alexander Santo Against Lorenzo Spaticini, Who Had Been Hired By Santo to Drive Him

DRIVING IS CARELESS

So Charges the Prosecutor—Accident Occurred On July 22, 1923. On the Road Between Cokeburg And Fredericktown—Case of Boy Is Continued

In common pleas court Alexander Santo has sued Lorenzo Spaticini to recover for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by Santo while a passenger in Spaticini's automobile.

The accident occurred on July 23, 1923, on the road between Cokeburg and Fredericktown. According to the story told, Santo had engaged Spaticini to drive him and a party of friends from Fredericktown to Cokeburg, paying $5 for the trip. On the return trip, the machine ran into an abutment at the foot of Peterman's hill, and Santo was thrown out and injured. It is alleged that he was rendered unconscious, and was unable to work for several weeks. Santo charges careless driving on the part of Spaticini as the cause of the accident.

The suit of George Talnak, Sr., of near Burgettstown, against Smith township, which was called before Judge Erwin Cummins on Wednesday is still on trial. This is a suit to recover damages for injuries alleged to have been suffered by George Talnak, Jr., 11-year-old son of the plaintiff, who had his hands maimed when a dynamite cap exploded. It is alleged that the cap was one of a number found by the boy in a bag on a slate dump of the Greensburg-Connelville Coal & Coke company, one mile west of Burgettstown.

The accident occurred on November 22, 1923. The plaintiff avers that the bag of caps, together with several sticks of dynamite, had been left on the slate dump by the foreman of a gang of workmen who were in the employ of Smith township. According to the evidence, these men had been hauling slate from the dump, and it is alleged, that the foreman concealed the bag of explosives until they should need it.

On their way home from school several boys climbed onto the dump to look at a buggy that had run over it. While there they found the bag of explosives.

Car Seized By Officers Is Being Worn Out

On September 3 Sergeant E. T. Cohee of the state police, arrested Worth Boone of Cincinnati, O., on the National Pike near Clayville for rum running. He was driving a Buick car and search revealed 67½ gallons of alcohol. The car carried Ohio license plates and had extra New York plates in reserve.

The outfit was taken to Washington and after a hearing Boone was released under $3,500 cash bail and the car impounded. Worth Boone was called for trial the first Monday of the last term of criminal court, and failing to appear, his cash bail of $3,500 was ordered forfeited.

This week an order of court for the return of the car was issued.

Butch was made. When the order was handed down it was revealed that the car had been in constant use practically ever since its seizure, being driven, it is alleged, by a prominent county official. It was in perfect shape when seized and practically new. It has not been in the county garage long enough since seizure to determine its present condition.

The act of the state legislature, approved March 27, 1923, providing for the seizure of cars used in rum running, is being enforced.

commissioners of each county shall provide the district attorney with suitable facilities for the storage and safe keeping of all intoxicating liquors or other property seized or held under the provisions of this act.

That the provisions of this act for the storage and safe keeping of all seized cars is violated by persons in authority around the court house is apparent from the use made of the cars and their condition when put up for sale. The district attorney's office holds rightly that its responsibility for the cars ceases after they are turned over to the county commissioners for safe-keeping and the necessary legal requirements regarding their sale are carried out. The sheriff has nothing to do with them except to facilitate at their sale.

The cars are stored in the county garage, which is under the control of the county commissioners, who are charged under the law with their safe-keeping. The practice of using and abusing the cars is a considerable financial loss to the county every time a seized car is held. The cars are being used for other purposes than those for which they were seized.

HAIL, CHARLEROI!
It must be with a pardonable degree of pride that we, as Charleroians, note the enviable record that Charleroi High School Football team made in the schedule just closed. We believe that we can say with our fear of being accused of unduly boasting,
hail Charleroi!
By its splendid victory over Don-ora Thanksgiving day, Charleroi High for the W. P. L. A. L. honors. Flushed with success Charleroi will enter this elimination struggle carrying with them the best wishes of all the teams they have met and defeated, as well as the people of the borough and its environs.

Cause for us feeling "exalted" lies in the fact that despite the most strenuous endeavor on the part of the High School Football eleven of the valley, in years past, to become eligible to enter the elimination contests, Charleroi this year enjoys the honor of being the first of the Monongahela Valley eleven to arrive at the distinction of eligibility to enter the contests. In this connection, it may be well to say that the backers of teams in the towns and the cities of the valley spent money and placed on the field in an attempt to be able to enter the elimination contests, the best eligible gridiron artists, all to no avail. Great credit is therefore due to not only the players of Charleroi High on their achievements, but credit is due in like measure to the patriotic members of the Charleroi High School Athletic association, who, by their enthusiasm and support, have made such results possible. Credit is also due to the public for its loyal support through substantial approbation, as attested by the large attendance at games; and further, credit is due Coach Steven Stepanian and Faculty Manager D.
W. Copeland, the former for his very excellent work in the handling of the players, and the latter-named for his counsel and advice and his untiring efforts in the eleven's behalf.
It is to be hoped that playing before strange crowds and on strange grounds, with an eleven that is an unknown quantity, will not act as a deterrent on the Valley Champions.
Of course, there will be plenty of home and valley fans present to lend them their aid and encouragement, to root with all the vigor with which the average partisan football crowd is vested; but on the other hand their opponents will have plenty of supporters who may do their best to disconcert the players of the Charleroi team. The well-wishers and friends of the Charleroi eleven have every confidence in their collective abilities to turn the trick—capture the coveted honors. Go into the contest with the resolve that you cannot possibly lose—must not lose—and you will win, boys!

Charleroi Officials Are In Pittsburg Today To Arrange For First Game

Superintendent Thomas L. Pollock, with Coach Stepanian and Manager Copeland of the High School Athletic Association left early this morning for Pittsburg, where they meet with the officials of the New Castle High School to make final arrangements for the struggle between the two school teams next week. The date for this game, December 6, had been agreed on by the two teams before the meeting, but the place of playing had not been definitely decided. It is the desire of the representatives of both schools that the game be played in Pittsburg, so as to afford fans from both districts an opportunity to witness the contest, and an effort will be made today to arrange for the Tech Bowl for this purpose.

Fuente Hopes To Show Fulton Win O. K. By Meeting Weinert

Tony Fuente, the much talked of Mexican heavy weight, is coming East after all. Strung to the quick by the rumors and talk of an alleged pre-arranged bout with Fred Fulton in Los Angeles recently, Fuente is bound that his name shall be cleared of any suspicion of wrong-doing, and with that object in view he got into communication with Frank Black, Harry Blaufuss and Babe Callen, who had previously offered him a match with some good man at Newark, N. J.
Tony had not made up his mind definitely about coming until the Fulton bout was lost. Then he telegraphed the New York trio and told them to select a man—the toughest—he could find—and he would come on and fight him, just to prove that he can fight.
He maintains he knows nothing of what Fulton might or might not have done in the bout with himself. He doesn't want a record well begun spoiled by any wild talk of sharp practice, and for that reason he is ready to lay his fighting cards right smack on the table.
He is endeavoring to explain to her the technicalities of keeping correctly the stubs in her check book, while they ate their grapefruit in a local restaurant this morning.
"You see," he said "you just subtract every time you write a check." Sounds perfectly plausible and simple, but every woman knows it won't work.

Round legs and flatter ones, Thin legs and fatter ones,
Especially the latter ones,

Real legs and phony ones,
Silk covered tony ones.
Second to none
Straight and distorted ones,
Mates and ill-sorted ones,

And we got fun?
Better open that advertising matter—we heard of a fellow burning up a good stamp once.
About the time a fellow gets interested in the girl in a corset along comes a new magazine with a better looking one.
Rather Embarrassing.
Supposing I decide to let you have the money, how do I know that I shall get it back at the time you mentioned?
I promise it on the word of a gentleman.
Ah, in that case I may consider it.
Come around this evening and bring him with you.
As we have little respect for the opinions of those who do not agree with us, what fools we must be to listen to the home of the addressee.

CHARLEROI TEAM IS STILL GOING STRONG

The sporting editor of the Washington Observer comments:
"Charleroi High School will represent Washington county in the postseason competition for the Syracuse trophy, emblematic of the football championship of the W. P. L. A. L.
Steve Stepanian, former Grove City athlete, brought his boys through their regular schedule undefeated. In accomplishing it, the Magic City lads disposed of a number of worthy rivals, not the least of them being Don-ora. John Anderson, former Pitt star, had Tommy Davies and others present to help him prepare Donora for its game with Charleroi, and had the outplayed in the first half, the Magic City boys showed championship qualities by coming back with a slashing attack in the second half which netted them two touchdowns and victory. All Washington county will be rooting for them to come through the post-season series triumphant and bring the championship, which Washington won last year, back to this district."

MUTINY IN THE SOUDAN IS QUITE SERIOUS

Cairo, Egypt, Nov. 29.—The mutiny in the Sudan was more serious than first meager reports indicated.
Fanatical Sudanese troops who rushed the military hospital at Khartoun put up a desperate street battle when British regulars intervened.
The blacks fought like trapped rats when surrounded by British and were shot down in repeated volleys.
All direct wires between Khartoun and Cairo are cut, and only mutilated wireless messages are being received from the capital on the Blue Nile, where the Sudanese, numbering about 200, mutinied yesterday after their officers had been removed. At least one British and two Syrian physicians were killed by the blacks as they stormed the hospital. The ensuing slaughter is understood to have been heavy.
The local censor at Khartoun appears to be functioning, considering the nature and context of such dispatches as are getting through.
Definite news that the mutiny has been quelled has not yet been received, although this was inferred. It was also taken for granted by British authorities here that those of the mutineers remaining alive after the British troops had surrounded them were under arrest.
A serious aspect to the situation from the British viewpoint was that these troops which mutinied are real Sudanese, not Egyptian, indicating there is disaffection among the former as well as the latter.
Two British officers were killed in the street fighting, and eight British privates were wounded.
The dispatch which contained this information said the situation was well in hand.
The mutiny occurred Friday. Between 100 and 200 black Sudanese troops, belonging to the eleventh battalion, were involved.
Under orders from the British high command, the native officers had been removed. Resentful of this, the blacks organized their hopeless revolt.
The military hospital at Khartoun is on the bank of the Nile, almost in the center of the city. The Sudanese directed their attack against this building, and cut down three doctors who opposed them. Overpowered and murdered by the fanatical blacks, they had no chance.
Then the Sudanese ran amuck in the streets. A handful of British troops went to the attack. A fierce running fight ensued.
Soon all the British troops in Khartoun were engaged. They brought up machine guns and threw barricades across the streets, pouring repeated volleys into the badly organized ranks of the native mutineers.
The latter, many of whom may have had the blood of the darvishes who fought Kitchener, in their veins, battled fanatically. Repeatedly they hurled themselves in little groups against the spitting, crackling nozzles of the Lewis machine guns that mowed them down.
The British outnumbered their men and were being reinforced each minute. Some Sudanese under British orders, helped attack the mutineers.
Some of the Sudanese, after their losses had become terrific in the street fighting, barricaded themselves in the hospital which was then surrounded by British.
British losses were not announced in the brief dispatches that have leaked through from Khartoun.
Cairo remained reasonably quiet.
Any of us can detect battery in a minute if it is for somebody else behind himself.

ROMERO ROJAS DEFEATS RISCO IN FIRST BOUT

Quintin Romero Rojas, Chilean heavyweight, won the referee's decision over John Risko, Cleveland heavyweight, after a 12-round bout at Cleveland last night. It was one of the fastest fights seen here in some time.
Rojas had Risko in a bad way in two rounds, the seventh and eighth, the bell saving the latter in the latter round.
Rojas came back strong, however,
and won the last three rounds.
Risko was on the aggressive in the early part of the bout, rocking Rojas with a hard left after the first gong. The Chilean landed but few clean blows until the fourth, when he lifted Risko with uppercuts and sent him back with body blows to the stomach.
Rojas slipped to one knee in the tenth and took a count of three.
This was the only time either went to the floor.
Rojas' weight was announced at 197, Risko's at 190.
Bobby Tracy of Buffalo won the referee's decision over Mel Conner, Brooklyn lightweight, in the eight-round semi-final.

JACK ZIVIC A WINNER OVER JOHN MENDELSON

JACK ZIVIC OF PITTSBURGH, was given the unanimous decision of the judges in a 10-round bout with Johnny Mendelson of Milwaukee at Detroit last night.
They are lightweights. Newspaper men credited Zivic with every round.
The postal service may be slow at times, but is commendably persistent. A letter written by a soldier in Baltimore in 1864 has just been delivered at the home of the addressee.

PIRATES GET RUETHER OVER FICTION ROUTE

Rumors from the east, preceding the annual baseball meetings, has it that Walter Ruether, erratic left-hander of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is about to be traded to the Pirates in exchange for Johnny Rawlings, the veteran substitute infielder.
The way they done it out, is that the temperamental Dutchman has outlived his usefulness in Flatbush, and it is but natural that he should be passed over to Pittsburgh for Rawlings, a carload of cash, all because Johnny would solve Manager Robinson's worries by playing second base and leaving Andy High to take care of short.
Officials of the Pittsburgh club, however, declare they have no negotiations hanging fire at the present time, all of which seems to spoil this little story.
Another report has it that Larry Doyle, former second baseman and field captain of the Giants, will return to Cian McGraw as a successor to Cozy Dolan on the coaching lines, but before Doyle can be signed up, it will be necessary to pry him loose from his present job as manager of a ball club at Glens Falls, N. Y.

PICTURE OF GREAT MERIT COMING TO THE COYLE

"The City That Never Sleeps" due at the Coyle Theatre for a run of four days next Monday, is the first American-made Paramount production starring Pola Negri to be directed by Ernst Lubitsch who made "Passion," "The Marriage Circle," etc., and who was the first to discover the real genius of the fiery Pola.

The story is an adaptation by Agnes Christine Johnston and Hans Kraly of the popular stage success, "The Czarina," by Lajos Biro and Menyher Lengyel.

As the Czarina, ruler of a small Balkan kingdom, with no will save her own to question her acts, Pola Negri is directed by a series of artists with the men of her court.

Discontent grows among the officers of her army and the seeds of rebellion are discovered by a young officer. This role is played by Rod La Rocque. Refusing to join the rebellion, La Rocque escapes a plot to kill him and rides three horses to death in an effort to reach the capital and warn the queen he adores.

Roberts is now at his home in Pittsburgh preparing for his long voyage to Brazil, where for the next five years he will conduct the missionary work there.

WAY SHOWN TO PROLONG LIFE OF AUTOMOBILE

Dirt and water have the same ravaging effect on an automobile that tuberculosis has on a human being sapping the strength and shortening the life of the vital parts of an automobile's motive plant. That it is possible to thwart these destructive elements by locking them out of every vital moving part is being demonstrated this week in the showroom of Spencer Garage, Charleroi.

The exhibit consists of a stricken chassis with ribbons and seals pointing out the nine vital points where dirt and water are kept out and lubricant is kept in by the special Buick construction. The display shows that every part of the engine and transmission, from fan to rear axle, is sealed against the intrusion of road dirt and water.

In Society's Realm

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital will hold their regular meeting in the Borough building Monday evening. A full attendance is desired as business of importance pertaining to the dolls outfitting bazaar and bake sale, which will be held December 12th and 13th, will be discussed.

A special called meeting of the Home and Hospital club of North Charleroi will be held at the home of Mrs. J. L. Roberts, North Charleroi, Tuesday evening. The regular meeting of the club has been postponed until November 9th, at which time they will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Wilnot of Center avenue, North Charleroi.

The students of the Charleroi High School had a good time at Hanna's Heights on the Charleroi-Bentleville road last evening. Most of the time was spent in dancing and the occasion was to celebrate Charleroi's victory over Donora Thanksgiving morning. Practically the whole student body turned out for the affair.

The members of the Maple Creek Sewing club enjoyed an elaborate turkey supper at the home of Mrs. O. W. Reed Wednesday evening. The table was daintily appointed with candies and favors, covers being laid for 18. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. Olbe Butler of Braddock. Games were also enjoyed. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Banes, December 4.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Guthrie, 401 McKean avenue, Wednesday evening, November 26 at 6 o'clock, when their sister, Miss Elizabeth Wallace Young of Pittsburgh and Thomas Liddell of Detroit, were united in marriage by the Rev. Robert J. Shields, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Young of Philadelphia, while the best man was Peter Forbes of Homestead. After the ceremony, dinner was served, following which the happy couple left by motor for Detroit, where the groom has a home already furnished awaiting his bride. Out-of-town guests were present from Pittsburgh, Homestead, Philadelphia and Monessen.

Miss Goldie May, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth May of McKean avenue became the bride of Raymond N. Kiefer at a pretty wedding ceremony which took place Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock in the parsonage of St. Jerome's Catholic church with Rev. Father William D. Fries officiating. The bride, who was very beautiful in a brown traveling attire, was attended by Miss Flora Saur of Pittsburgh. Al Munay served as best man. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Kiefer left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. and other interesting points. They will return tomorrow and reside temporarily with the groom's parents. The groom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Kiefer of Lookout avenue, is a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh and is at the present time affiliated with Henning's Drug store. The bride has been employed in the shoe department of McCreary's department store, Pittsburgh, for the past two years. Both are very wellknown here.

The fellow higher up is getting paid for something about the job that you have not taken the trouble to learn.

ELECTION DEPRIVES HIM OF "TOPPER" HE WORE 20 YEARS

G. Polk Cline, pioneer Kansas lawyer and politician, doesn't feel like the same man since the election. He misses his hat. He had worn a high silk hat for 20 years when he made the vow that if his daughter, Nellie, was defeated in her race for congress, he would never wear it again. She lost by a few votes. Cline is seen wearing the hat since before the election.

MAKING POPPIES

ENGAGE INTEREST

OF EX-SOLDIERS

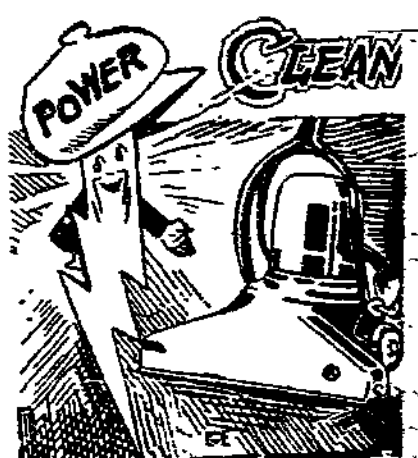

Leavenworth, Kan. Nov. 29—Disabled ex-service men in the hospitals of the state are busy these days. They have started to make the million "Flanders Poppies" which will be sold by the American Legion Auxiliary of the state to raise money for their soldiers' relief fund. Making replicas of the famous Flanders Poppy is one of the projects of the veterans' society.

With and also offers an opportunity for the disabled veteran to earn some

The veterans are paid two and one-half cents apiece for making the flowers and in the past have made on an average of two hundred a day. These poppies are all sterilized before they are offered for sale to the public.

Senator Reed Smoot of Utah isn't the same man any more. He is now meandering around Washington minus the scraggly, iron-gray mustache that adorned his lip so long. A barber cut his way irritated him so about having it trimmed that he ordered it cut off. "If Mrs. Smoot approves, I'll live without a mustache," he says. He is now a mustacheless man.

(Continued from first page) Lying on one side. Not knowing what it contained they divided the caps and dynamite, and started for home. The Talnak boy started to scratch some dirt off a cap with a pin, and it exploded. It was stated that another boy tried to use one of the deadly caps for a whistle, holding it in his mouth, but fortunately, it did not explode.

There Is Much to See

Often as I work I stop to see, really see, see everything, or to listen, and it is the wonder of wonders how much there is in this old world which we never dreamed of, how many beautiful, curious, interesting sights and sounds there are which ordinarily make no impression upon our clogged, overfed and preoccupied minds. I have also had the feeling—it may be unscientific, but it is comforting—that any like a hound if he gave to the senses the brains which the Indian and the hound apply to them. And I'm pretty sure about the Indian! It is marvelous what a man can do when he puts his entire mind upon one faculty and bears down hard.—David Grayson
